E. FINANCIAL REQUIREMENTS

International students at Rhema may obtain an F-1 visa while attending school. This information is covered in our International Student Admissions Packet and on the U.S. Immigration website at ice.gov/sevis.

- 1) If you are not married, proof from your financial institution or bank must state that you have the equivalent of $16,000 U.S. dollars on deposit. If you have children, this amount will increase $2,000 U.S. dollars for each child living with you.
- 2) For a husband and wife, proof from your financial institution or bank must state that you have the equivalent of $20,000 U.S. dollars on deposit. If you have children, this amount will increase $2,000 U.S. dollars for each child living with you.

NOTE: The amount stated for husband and wife includes tuition charges for the applicant only. If both husband and wife plan to submit applications to Rhema Bible Training College, you must add the equivalent of $3,050 U.S. dollars to the required amount.

- 3) Include your financial documents with your application.

ALL FINANCIAL DOCUMENTS MUST BE WRITTEN AND SIGNED BY AN OFFICIAL OF THE FINANCIAL INSTITUTION WHERE THE FUNDS ARE ON DEPOSIT.

Rhema Bible Training College does not offer scholarships or financial aid to applicants or students. We cannot aid you in locating a sponsor.

The administrators of Rhema Bible Training College are fully aware that God is able to supply all the needs of our student body. We are also aware that a person's ability and willingness to fulfill his financial responsibilities are very significant to a successful ministry. Many ministers with great potential have faltered and brought much reproach to the Kingdom of God by improper handling of their finances. Therefore, we request that you identify how you will fulfill the financial requirements for international students. Be specific with the amounts you have on hand now.

- Savings: Amount on deposit _____
