STRONG FAITH. STRONG FOUNDATION. STRONG FUTURE. RHEMA STRONG.

Rhema Job & Housing Guide

Two of the most common questions after a person knows they want to attend RBTC are:

“Where will I live?”

“Where will I work?”

You may already have these sorted out, but if not, we have good news! The Rhema Job/Housing Board is available to all accepted and current students. There are lists of companies looking to hire and people looking for roommates.

Any accepted student can access the information by emailing the recruiting office at cwicks@rhema.org, and the listings will be emailed to you right away. You can also add your name to the roommate listing, which will help other people connect with you. The list updates often so check as frequently as you like.

It is the student’s responsibility to secure a job and housing, but we hope to present you with several options to review!

Where Will I Live?

STUDENT HOUSING

We have 96 units across the street from Rhema USA at Greg Smith Memorial Student Housing. These one- and two-bedroom apartments are not furnished. They also fill up quickly! Visit rbtc.org/housing for instructions on how to apply for the Rhema Student Housing waiting list.

OTHER HOUSING OPTIONS

One helpful website for students is edurent.com. If you are looking to rent a home versus an apartment, you might look at rentersplace.com, realtor.com, and tulsarealtors.com. And if apartment living is all you need, check out our list below or visit apartments.com.

Those websites are just the beginning of resources for housing in the Tulsa/Broken Arrow area. If possible, we highly recommend visiting the area before making your official transition to see your options first-hand, the neighborhood, and the condition of the property.

Where Will I Work?

Jobs are available in the area! To help in your job search, we have a private job board only for Rhema students. Posted opportunities are not officially approved by RBTC, but we want to pass along any beneficial information! Use discretion when investigating employment opportunities, just as you would when making career choices.

To get started, here is a snapshot of our current listings. These are subject to change, and the locations may not have job openings immediately. But they are good places to begin your search because they have had a Rhema presence before!
